TLG CLIENT BULLETIN

SPECIAL EDITION, September 2001

A Time for Reevaluation!

Due to the tragic attack on the USA on Tuesday, September 11, 2001, TLG has received numerous telephone calls from clients regarding their respective Emergency Response Plan. Consequently, TLG

THE LION GROUP Regulatory Consultants provides our clients, and associates, with our complimentary regulatory information resource, "TLG CLIENT BULLETIN". To be included on our master list for future issues, provide us with your e-mail address(es) for computer copy or postal mailing address(es) for hard copy.

strongly recommends that you reevaluate your plan to ensure it is current and complete.

The following are some points to consider:

- Ensure all listed personnel and contact information is current.
- Ensure all evacuation plans include changes in facilities and facility sites.
- Are there any changes in the surrounding areas and neighborhoods in which your facilities are located?
- Are there any new manufacturing processes or products that have a hazard potential?
- Decrease the amounts of hazardous, explosive, or combustibles stored on your facility site or inside your actual facilities.
- Review all emergency contact information on your employees, and focus on employees whose job tasks include travel.
- Ensure the contact information on your emergency responders (fire / police / medical) is current, and any new potentials are communicated to them, if necessary.

- Review your corporate policy regarding responses to any threats, if applicable (What do you do and who makes the decisions?).
- Ensure all your facilities (domestic/USA and international) fully understand corporate expectations as to the Emergency Response Plan.

TLG has received messages of concern from our friends around the world. We want to further express our heartfelt thanks for their concerns. We continue to pray for all those who have been personally affected, and to remain optimistic and hopeful for a world that allows all persons to live in peace.

GOD BLESS AMERICA !
